WHAT'S ABOUT?

Cultural heritage is constantly at the centre of violence and criminal activities.

Illicit traffic of cultural heritage represent one of the largest illegal market worldwide.

Italy is in the frontline of contrasting this traffic which involves thousands of players and counts billions of euros per year.

The Summer School in HERITAGE CRIMES & EMERGENCIES is an entire week dedicated to the study of such field, exploring current issues and possible tools for evaluating and contrasting the illicit traffic of cultural heritage, with a specific attention on its economic dimension.

All activities will be held online.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

The course is designed for a mix of civilians, military personnel, NGOs personnel, volunteers, peacekeepers, government authorities, community leaders, cultural sites managers and operators, and, more in general, all the persons with a role in intervening in field operations in armed conflicts or disasters scenarios, as well as those ones operating in the post conflict or post disaster recovery and reconciliation process.

The promoters bear the costs of organizing the initiative, so participation is free.
